COMMITTEE ACTS ON FIVE BILLS

District Body of House Meets for First Time Since Last May.

MEASURES SIDESTEPED

Bill Substituting Electrocution for Hanging Reported on Favorably.

Acting under the ruling of Chairman Johnson that unless a point of order is made against such procedure, the committee will transact business upon its meeting days in the future, regardless of the absence of a quorum, the House District Committee yesterday met. By cautiously feeling their way, a point of order was reported by a member, but there might be objection on the part of members present, the committee managed to report out five bills of more or less importance before the meeting hour of the House adjourned the session. It was the first session held by the committee since early in May of last year. Chairman Johnson and Representatives Lobeck, Cary, Adair, Dyer, Redfield, Prouty, Berger, and Kahn, virtually the same men who have on many previous occasions tried to assemble a quorum of the committee, were present. The habitual absentees were not in evidence, as per the usual order.

Five bills, all of which have been passed by the Senate, were favorably acted upon by the committee as follows:

An act to permit the German Orphan Asylum Association of the District to determine the number of directors to constitute its board of directors by any constitution which the association may hereafter adopt.

Amending the District code to substitute electrocution for hanging as the punishment for murder in the first degree in the District.

Providing a maximum fine of $1,000, or a maximum imprisonment of five years for unauthorized use of vehicles.

Censor the "Movies."

Empowering the District Commissioners to exercise a censorship over moving picture films intended to be displayed in the District of Columbia, and directing the Commissioners to prevent the exhibition of Jew and vulgar pictures in a moving picture show or other public place of amusement.

Prohibiting the dumping of trash or refuse of any nature into the waters of the Potomac from vessels or wharves, with the exception of such debris as is with a view of constructing a wharf, in which event written consent from the Commissioners must be obtained first.

By the action of the committee yesterday, all of the measures go upon the House calendar, and may be called up Monday, the last District Day this month.

Two important measures were not acted upon, the Jones-Works excise or liquor bill, because Representative Cary announced that if any attempt were made to call that measure up, he would adjourn the meeting by raising the point of no quorum, and the Gallinger-Oldfield public utilities bill, because it was deemed to get out a few of the less important measures first.

While there is decided opposition to the Jones-Works bill, it is not known that there is much feeling against the utilities bill in the committee. Chairman Johnson's attitude on the measure is not known. It is believed he is willing to report it out with some amendments.

Representative Lobeck of Nebraska is inclined to oppose the measure because the Commissioners are vested with the powers of a public utility commission. Mr. Lobeck favors a body separate from the Commissioners.

Representative Oldfield, author of the House utilities bill, is absent from the city, owing to a Senatorial boom in Arkansas. It is not considered likely that the bill will be taken up before his return, though one member of the committee yesterday expressed a willingness to hold night meetings to clear up the calendar, and with a particular view to passing upon the utilities bill.

G. O. P. SOLONS TO CAUCUS.
Conference to Decide Upon Action in Regard to Taft Nominations.

Republican Senators agreed yesterday to hold a caucus to meet Tuesday morning to determine what action will be taken by them to meet the Democratic opposition in the Senate to confirming President Taft's nominations.

The Senate is practically in a deadlock over the matter. The Democrats, after holding four conferences, have repeatedly set themselves against confirming any nominations except army, navy, and diplomatic.

The Republicans a few days ago seriously considered the advisability of trying to force a continuous executive session, but the Democrats yielded. But the first time an effort was made by the Republicans to hold the Senate the Democrats broke a quorum by leaving the chamber, and it was impossible to secure the presence of enough Republicans to make a quorum and confirm nominations.

VISIT WASHINGTON'S TOMB.
Corn Club Boys Spend Part of Day at Mount Vernon.

The boys corn growers had a jolly time at Mount Vernon yesterday. They spent the entire day there under care of Prof. O. B. Martin, a corn demonstrator of the Department of Agriculture. The boys were shown every part of the historic estate and placed a wreath on Washington's tomb. They returned to Washington last night and after a good supper went to the theater.

The boys have seen about everything there is to be seen in the Capital, but will remain until Sunday afternoon, when they will return to their homes.

REPORTS FAVORABLY
HOUGHTON GIRL BILL

Amount to Be Paid Unfortunate Young Woman Raised to $10,000.

Representative Pott, from the Committee on Claims, yesterday reported favorably with an amendment increasing the amount of compensation from $500 to $10,000, the Senate bill providing for the payment of the last-named amount to Miss Alice V. Houghton, the young employee of the Census Office, whose scalp was torn from her head by whirling machinery while at work in 1911.

A determined effort will be made from several sources in the House to pass the bill as amended at an early date. An effort will be made to obtain consideration out of order by unanimous consent. There is a strong sentiment in the House in favor of dealing generously with Miss Houghton, who not only is disabled for life, but who may remain an invalid as the result of her accident.

FINDS BURGLAR IN HOUSE.
Miss Lydia Barrett Choked and Beaten by Intruder.

Hearing a strange noise in the second floor of her home yesterday afternoon, Miss Lydia Garrett, of 44 K Street Northwest, started an investigation that ended in her discovering a man, colored, man sneaking down stairs with an armful of clothes.

She grappled with the man and succeeded in making him drop the clothes. He then turned on her, and after choking and beating her almost into insensibility, made his escape. One arrest was made yesterday, but Miss Garrett could not identify the man as her assailant and he was turned loose.
